This week's News:

2021 SUMMER REMIX EDITION

- Place Highlight: THE CHICKEN TREE is the nickname of a tree on the high meadow located near our vegetable gardens. It is a male Juniper tree that got its nickname because the chicken coop used to be located nearby and when the tree was young and smaller, the chickens would come and climb it to roost under its shade. While the chicken coop has long since moved, the tree remains a favorite of our campers who enjoy its shade and climbing its easily climbable branches.

- Wednesday was CRAZY HAIR/ CRAZY HAT DAY!
